C. Organize 2 other exchange trip for other young farmers and extend the network.

The research: Youth and Young Adult Engagement in Sustainable Farming: A Permaculture Approach (Education For Sustainability Conference 2017, Singapore)

Questions:

- "What are the roles of Vam Ho and Tam Viet Farms in the educational and environmental awareness development of youth and young adult students?"
- "How do the students react during and after the training courses in Vam Ho and Tam Viet Farms?"

The result:

Through using the seven domains of the flower model of permaculture ethics and design principles as categories for our investigation, we are able to demonstrate that the Vam Ho and Tam Viet farms actively play important roles in the education and environmental awareness of youth and young adults in the Mekong Delta.
